

VOTER IDENTIFICATION:

All voters must provide identification to be eligible to vote. The purpose of the voter identification is to provide proof of identity and establish residency. Photo identification is your best option but there are other alternatives available to you.

Photo ID – Your BEST option to take to the polls

You require only one original piece of identification if it has your photo, name and address and it is issued by a federal, provincial, or municipal government. Most people use their Saskatchewan Driver's License. If you are a non-driver, you may obtain photo identification from Saskatchewan Government Insurance at little or no cost. If your identification does not meet these criteria it will not be recognized as an acceptable form of photo identification.

Examples include:

- A valid Saskatchewan Driver's Licence. (If you still have a two-piece licence, make sure you have both pieces).
- A valid Saskatchewan ID card issued by SGI or any motor licence issuer. (Available for $10 or free for seniors).
- Any other valid government issued photo ID issued by a Canadian government whether federal, provincial or municipal, or an agency of that government, as long as it includes your name and address.

Please note:

A Canadian passport is not an acceptable form of photo identification because it does not contain your address. However, a Canadian passport can be used as identification if paired with another document that has your name and address on it.

Acceptable Non-photo ID Options

If you don't have photo identification and are unable to obtain photo identification before Election Day, you can present two pieces of information as long as both contain your name and at least one contains your address. Examples include:

- Valid ID cards or certificates issued by the Canadian or Saskatchewan government, a Saskatchewan municipality or school division, a Saskatchewan Indian band, the Métis Nation of Saskatchewan or an agency of one of these entities.
- Personal correspondence, benefit/contribution statements and tax/assessment notices issued by any of the above entities.
- Bank/credit union cards, credit cards and statements.
- Utility bills and statements issued within six months of the date of the election.

- Personalized attestation of residence, letter of stay or admission form issued by a seniors or student residence, long term care or shelter facility.

Vouching

A person without acceptable ID but who is accompanied by another voter who has acceptable ID and is entitled to vote in the same municipality can be vouched for by that individual using the form available at the polling station from an election official.

Please Note:

- As set out in subsection 17(2) of the Local Government Election Regulations, no voter shall vouch for more than one person in an election unless the persons to be vouched for are living at the same address as the voucher and are related to the voucher in one of the following ways:

spouse	father	mother
grandfather	grandmother	stepfather
stepmother	father-in-law	mother-in-law
brother	sister	brother-in-law
sister-in-law	son	daughter
stepson	stepdaughter	son-in-law
daughter-in-law	grandson	granddaughter

- A person who has been vouched for cannot vouch for another voter.
- Election officials, candidates and candidate’s agents are prohibited from vouching.

Things to Know

Before you head to the polls ensure your identification is acceptable. Identification that would not be acceptable as proof of identity includes:

- ID that is expired.
- ID that is not original (copied or otherwise reproduced).
- A general (not personal) attestation of residence, class or membership lists and other documents showing multiple names.

Information that is issued monthly (utility bills, bank statements) must be dated within six months preceding election day to be acceptable and information issued annually (property tax bill) must be dated within the same year the election is being held.

Getting ID

Election Day is Wednesday, October 26, 2016. Take the time to ensure that you have acceptable ID. Below is a list of resources to help you acquire the proper identification:

- Obtain a Driver's Licence or Non-Driver's Photo ID from SGI.
- Find a driver's licence and photo ID issuer.
- If you reside at a long term care facility, senior or student residence or currently utilize a shelter facility or soup kitchen, you can have the responsible authority of the facility provide you with a Certification of Identity and Residence Form.

Complete List of Acceptable Identification:

Remember that in the absence of valid, photo ID (see above) voters must have two pieces of identification, both of which have the voter's name, and at least one of which also has his or her address.
